35. Definitions

S. 35 inserted by No.
81/1991 s. 3.

(1) In Subdivisions (8A) to (8G)—

“de facto spouse” means a person who is living with a person of the opposite sex as if they were married although they are not;

“sexual penetration” means—

- (a) the introduction (to any extent) by a person of his penis into the vagina, anus or mouth of another person, whether or not there is emission of semen; or
- (b) the introduction (to any extent) by a person of an object or a part of his or her body (other than the penis) into the vagina or anus of another person, other than in the course of a procedure carried out in good faith for medical or hygienic purposes;

“vagina” includes—

- (a) the external genitalia; and
- (b) a surgically constructed vagina.

(2) For the purposes of Subdivisions (8B) to (8E) both the person who sexually penetrates another person and the other person are taking part in an act of sexual penetration.

36. Meaning of consent<sup>6</sup>

S. 36
substituted by
No. 81/1991
s. 3.

For the purposes of Subdivisions (8A) to (8D) “consent” means free agreement. Circumstances in which a person does not freely agree to an act include the following:

- (a) the person submits because of force or the fear of force to that person or someone else;
- (b) the person submits because of the fear of harm of any type to that person or someone else;
- (c) the person submits because she or he is unlawfully detained;

- (d) the person is asleep, unconscious, or so affected by alcohol or another drug as to be incapable of freely agreeing;
- (e) the person is incapable of understanding the sexual nature of the act;
- (f) the person is mistaken about the sexual nature of the act or the identity of the person;
- (g) the person mistakenly believes that the act is for medical or hygienic purposes.

S. 37
substituted by
No. 81/1991
s. 3.

37. *Jury directions on consent<sup>6</sup>

In a relevant case the judge must direct the jury that—

- (a) the fact that a person did not say or do anything to indicate free agreement to a sexual act is normally enough to show that the act took place without that person's free agreement;
- (b) a person is not to be regarded as having freely agreed to a sexual act just because—
  - (i) she or he did not protest or physically resist; or
  - (ii) she or he did not sustain physical injury; or
  - (iii) on that or an earlier occasion, she or he freely agreed to engage in another sexual act (whether or not of the same type) with that person, or a sexual act with another person;
- (c) in considering the accused's alleged belief that the complainant was consenting to the sexual act, it must take into account whether that belief was reasonable in all the relevant circumstances.

47A. Sexual relationship with child under the age of 16

S. 47A
inserted by
No. 8/1991
s. 3.

- (1) A person who maintains a sexual relationship with a child under the age of 16 to whom he or she is not married and who is under his or her care, supervision or authority is guilty of an indictable offence.
- (2) To prove an offence under sub-section (1) it is necessary to prove—
  - (a) that the accused during a particular period (while the child was under the age of 16 and under his or her care, supervision or authority) did an act in relation to the child which would constitute an offence under a particular provision of this Subdivision or Subdivision (8A) or (8B); and
  - (b) that such an act also took place between the accused and the child on at least two other occasions during that period.
- (3) It is not necessary to prove the dates or the exact circumstances of the alleged occasions.
- (4) A person who is guilty of an offence under sub-section (1) is liable to a penalty not exceeding the maximum penalty fixed or prescribed by law for the offence which the relevant act would constitute.
- (5) If on the trial of a person charged with an offence against sub-section (1) the jury are not satisfied that he or she is guilty of the offence charged but are satisfied that the accused did an act during that period which constitutes an offence against Subdivision (8A), (8B), (8C), (8D) or (8E) of Division 1 of Part I, the jury must acquit the accused of the offence charged but may find him or her guilty of that other offence and he or she is liable to punishment accordingly.
- (6) Sub-section (5) does not restrict the operation of section 421 or 422.

- (7) A prosecution for an offence under sub-section (1) must not be commenced without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

S. 49A.

INSERTED (as from 14/6/95) by s. 93 of 1994 No. 102 as follows:-

"49A. Facilitating sexual offences against children

(1) Subject to this section, a person who in Victoria makes travel arrangements for another person or does or omits to do any other act that aids, facilitates or contributes to in any way whatever the commission by another person of an offence against this Subdivision (other than this section) or against Division 2 of Part IIIA of the Crimes Act 1914 of the Commonwealth or against a law in force only in a place outside Victoria the necessary elements of which consist of or include elements which, if present or occurring in Victoria, would constitute an offence against this Subdivision (other than this section) is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to level 2 imprisonment.

(2) For a person to be guilty of an offence against sub-section (1) the person—

- (a) must make the travel arrangements or do or omit to do the other act with a view to personal gain or gain for another person; and
- (b) must—
  - (i) intend that the conduct would aid, facilitate or contribute to the commission of an offence of the type committed by the other person; or
  - (ii) be reckless as to whether or not the conduct would aid, facilitate or contribute to the commission of an offence of the type committed by the other person."

61. Jury warnings

- (1) On the trial of a person for an offence under Subdivision (8A), (8B), (8C), (8D) or (8E) or under any corresponding previous enactment or for an attempt to commit any such offence or an assault with intent to commit any such offence—
- (a) the judge must not warn, or suggest in any way to, the jury that the law regards complainants in sexual cases as an unreliable class of witness; and
- (b) if evidence is given or a question is asked of a witness or a statement is made in the course of an address on evidence which tends to suggest that there was delay in making a complaint about the alleged offence by the person against whom the offence is alleged to have been committed, the judge must—

- (i) warn the jury that delay in complaining does not necessarily indicate that the allegation is false; and
  - (ii) inform the jury that there may be good reasons why a victim of a sexual assault may hesitate in complaining about it.
- (2) Nothing in sub-section (1) prevents a judge from making any comment on evidence given in the proceeding that it is appropriate to make in the interests of justice.

- (1) A person is not guilty of attempting to commit an offence unless the conduct of the person is—
  - (a) more than merely preparatory to the commission of the offence; and
  - (b) immediately and not remotely connected with the commission of the offence.
- (2) For a person to be guilty of attempting to commit an offence, the person must—
  - (a) intend that the offence the subject of the attempt be committed; and
  - (b) intend or believe that any fact or circumstance the existence of which is an element of the offence will exist at the time the offence is to take place.
- (3) A person may be guilty of attempting to commit an offence despite the existence of facts of which he or she is unaware which make the commission of the offence attempted impossible.
